

From: Sloloucks@aol.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/24/01 8:10pm
Subject: Please stop this expansion of their monopoly position

The proposed settlement whereby microsoft "donates" software and hardware to schools will only increase their monopoly position in the marketplace. Microsoft products are priced higher than other comparable or better software and yet they are able to charge these higher prices because of their overwhelming dominance of the market. Their donation of software to the schools will only increase this dominance.

James HL Ewan
1221 Sylvia Ct
San Luis Obispo, CA
93401